++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Good sunny spells and very warm. Cloudier in the northwest.

This Evening and Tonight:
A fine sunny evening across much of the country, but low cloud and patchy drizzle continuing to affect the northwest, this becoming more widespread overnight. The south and east staying dry and clear.

Saturday:
The best of the sunshine in the south and east and very warm again. Cloudier in Argyll, northwest with patchy rain, though Northern Isles brightening up. Breezy in the north.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Staying mainly dry and settled, although a little patchy rain possible, mainly in the north and northwest. Bright or sunny spells developing widely, warm or very warm in the sunshine.
